DISTRICT COURT OPENS

JUDGE RAINEY ON THE BENCH, AND MAKES STRONG CHARGE
TO GRAND JURY.

LAYS STRESS ON PROHIBITION ENFORCEMENT

Jury of Good Men Asked to Investigate Conduct of City and County Officers.

This morning at 9 o'clock Judge Rainey of Atoka opened the fall term of district court. The defendants were each arraigned before the court and each entered a plea of not guilty. The grand jury was then empaneled, examined and qualified and the judge in an able manner charged the jury which will appear in Wednesday's News.

The charge to the jury will meet with the hearty approbation of the law-abiding citizens of Pontotoc county, and these people who are jealous of the community's good reputation, will give the court their unqualified support. He struck the keynote when he emphasized the crimes of illicit sale of liquor, non-performance of duty by county and city officers, carrying concealed weapons, and perjury. The county riding of this character of crime, people would be better contented, homes would be more secure and the moral uplift would result in good, in innumerable respects. It is hoped that at this term of court the juries will do their whole duty, and that a new epoch in moral betterment will result.

Grand Jury.

A. J. Caldwell, John Tigner, Z. T. Cartright, A. Henagen, John Keifer, H. C. Russell, J. S. Gish, T. W. Hardin, J. H. Gillespie, John Carlton, A. P. Robinson, I. W. Odom, H. C. Russell was appointed foreman of the jury and T. V. B. Mullinax, guard.

After noon the case of H. Woodard, charged with murder, was called and the task of impanelling the jury begun. At 3 o'clock only four jurors had been chosen. The defendant is represented by Crawford & Bolen, and J. F. McKeel of the local bar, and W. I. Cruce of Ardmore. The counsel for the defense is notably strong and an able and strong fight will be made for Woodard's freedom. Some night sessions will be held during this term.

Katy Changes Time.

The north bound Katy now arrives in Ada at 4:58 p. m. This change in time is made to make connections at Atoka with the Katy Flyer from St. Louis. The time of running from Atoka to Oklahoma City has been shortened nearly an hour.

MINGLES ROAD

LEADS TO PEN

Guthrie, Okla., Sept. 25.—The criminal court of appeals today denied the habeas corpus in the case of Cecil Mingle of Oklahoma City. It had been contended by his attorneys that when Judge Carney left the county in which the trial was had, before the jury had returned a verdict, it annulled the case. The court denied this contention, and also the alleged unconstitutionality of keeping a prisoner confined pending an appeal for a habeas corpus.

CHARGES AGAINST COUNTY ATTY.

Hughes County Grand Jury Also Indicts Deputy Sheriff.

Holdenville, Okla., Sept. 25.—An indictment returned by the Hughes county grand jury today charges George Wilson deputy sheriff, with accepting bribes from bootleggers. The jury also filed charges against W. P. Langston, county attorney, accusing him with failing and refusing to collect bonds in liquor cases where defendants have failed to appear for trial.

Langston will have a hearing during the November term of court and Wilson will be arrested and probably removed from office. The jury did not recommend that Langston be suspended.

PEARY QUIET.

Bar Harbor, Maine, Sept. 27.—Pending a conference between General Thomas H. Hubbard, president of the Peary Arctic Club and Peary, on proofs which the latter has to support his position that Cook has not been to the North Pole, no new phases on the Peary side of the controversy is expected to develop. Commander Peary will arrive from Portland tonight and go at once to the home of Hubbard, where he will be a guest during his stay here.

SECOND TEXAS SPEECH

BY W. J. BRYAN

DEMOCRATIC LEADER RETURNS
TO TEXAS TO EXPLAIN HIS POSITION
IN THE BRYAN-BAILEY CONTROVERSY.

Censured Certain Congressmen and Senators—Explains How Steel Trust
Profits $20,000,000 by Ore Tax.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 27.—William J. Bryan returned to Texas today to explain in a public address his position in the Bryan-Bailey controversy over the tax on free raw materials. Mr. Bryan took for his subject: "Democracy and the Tariff." He censured some of the democratic senators and congressmen for their position in the recent tariff debate in congress and declared they had lost to the democratic party the greatest opportunity for a signal victory that has been offered in years.

"The steel trust asked for a duty on iron ore," he said, "and the vote for their requested duty gives the government a revenue of $250,000 and the steel trust $10,000,000."

TRAIN COLLISION

KILLS TEN MEN

SIXTEEN OTHERS FATALLY INJURED IN COLLISION JUST OUT OF CINCINNATI.

Chicago, Sept. 28.—Ten men were killed and sixteen probably fatally injured early this morning when a train southbound for Cincinnati on the Pennsylvania, crashed into the caboose of a Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul cattle train, bound for the stock yards.

Sixteen men were in the caboose of the stock train when the passenger train crashed into it in the railroad yards, a few blocks from the downtown station.

The engine plowed through the caboose, literally tearing it to shreds and setting fire to the debris.

Six bodies were recovered within a few minutes after the crash, while the flames were eating up the splintered bits of the demolished car. Sixteen injured were dragged from the burning ruins.

BIG BILL TAFT

WOULDN'T BUTT IN

EXPECTED TO VISIT THE BUTTE SMELTERS AND MINES BUT CHANGED PLAN BECAUSE OF TROUBLE.

Butte, Mont., Sept. 27.—President Taft arrived here today on his swing toward the north. He had planned to visit the numerous mines and smelters during his visit, but the trouble between miners and mining engineers caused the abandonment of the plan.

Fire! Fire!

About one o'clock today the fire alarm was sounded, and later returned being accompanied also by the big Cement Plant whistle, and the crowds rushed to the Thorne, or Farmer's gin near the Frisco depot. Fire had been discovered in the gin stands and was gaining considerable headway. The gin hose was doing effective work when the wagon arrived on the scene, and the double streams soon put the fire out of business. No considerable damage was done except a thorough roasting was given the building and machinery.

Chief Ed Harraway of the First National is an artistic hose holder as well as money changer.

THE CENTRAL WEST

FEELS EARTHQUAKE

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 27.—A slight earthquake which was felt through Southeastern Missouri and in Southern and Central Illinois and Indiana and as far south as Nashville, Tenn., occurred early today.

In St. Louis the tremor came at 3:47 o'clock. As far as learned little damage resulted. The general direction of the shock was west to east and it was felt more clearly in the thinly settled districts. Villages west of St. Louis reported the destruction of a few chimneys and in the west end of this city, the residence district, many sleepers were awakened. The quake was scarcely in evidence in the downtown districts.

SOUTH SCHOOL DELAYED

NORTH AND EAST SIDE OPEN

At a recent meeting of the school board President Briles reported that it would be best to postpone the opening of the South Ward school, which is to be the Model school for the State normal, for two weeks owing to the incomplete condition of the New High school building. This will make the opening of the Model school on October 18. The schools on the North and East sides will open for enrollment on Thursday and Friday of this week.

The sub-districts will remain for the present as they were last year, the Frisco Railroad being the dividing line between the North and South schools, and the line dividing the South and East side schools begins at the Frisco railroad, runs south on Townsend to Main, east on Main to Rennie, South on Rennie to thirteenth and east on Thirteenth to city limits. All pupils who expect to attend school at either the South or East schools will present themselves for enrollment at the appointed time at their respective buildings.

Will Raise Some Wheat.

J. M. Harris, J. M. Sales and A. M. Loman, prominent farmers residing northeast of Ada are arranging to put in some wheat this fall. Not much wheat is now being raised in the immediate vicinity of Ada, but these progressive farmers, will no doubt make it pay them well as they understand how to farm to get the greatest results from their labor.

FEDERAL JUDGE

ENJOINS STATE

WILL NOT PERMIT STATE OFFICIALS FROM INTERFERING WITH PIPING OF GAS OUT OF THE STATE.

McAlester, Ok., Sept. 27.—Judge Ralph E. Campbell, in the federal court here today, issued a temporary order restraining the state officials from interfering with the piping of gas out of Oklahoma.

Today's action was sought by the Kansas Natural Gas company and other foreign companies now constructing pipe lines, the work on which had been stopped by the state. Judge Campbell's order was sweeping. It enjoins the state officials from in any manner interfering with the piping of gas out of Oklahoma either under the provision of the act of the first legislature or under any authority of any law, or rule, written or unwritten and from instituting any action in any court of the state to interfere with such piping pending a termination of the present suits or further orders of the court.

DIGNITY OF POSITION SAVES SNEERS OF WEST

Alfred Henry Lewis says that only popular respect for the presidential office prevents people of the west from giving open manifestation of their displeasure in relation to Mr.
Taft's utterances pertaining to the tariff question. But the people are doing some vigorous thinking, and the growing impression is that the president is committing a series of blunders.

Even in the east, in his "ain country," it is believed that the swing
around the circle for political effect is a great mistake on Mr. Taft's part.
The Wall Street Journal indulges in this frank criticism:

"Even personal geniality and magnetism do not compensate for the lack of larger qualities, and Mr.
Taft's greatest admirers will find it hard to show that he has not made a very poor start in his campaign of education. There are two kinds of tact, and President Taft's so far is the wrong kind. He is trying to reconcile two irreconcilable elements.
He will end by earning the contempt
of both, or by throwing in his lot with the party of reaction and unfair
privilege at their own sordid price.
He has already compromised himself
upon both sides of the tariff question with the result of leaving his judgment open to serious misgiving upon any question in which the present dominant element in the republican party is interested."

PREFERS OLD FASHIONED.

Even the sinner editor of the Enid Wave-Events would attend church if there were preaching such as is referred to below:

"Some of the preachers in city pulpits, complain of a lack of church attendance and are continually asking why and lambasting people who do not attend. The problem is not complex. It can be answered very readily. The reason more people do not attend church is that too many sermons are as dull as the nose of a Mauser bullet and insipid as dish water, made up of stale stories and new fangled theories of orthodoxy, theology and creed. The preacher who adheres to the methods and style of the old fashioned, early day ministers who preach 'Christ and Him crucified' and the old idea of a hell of fire and brimstone, following the lines of the Bible's teachings, will have a full house every Sunday. Even this writer would go out to hear a preacher of this kind. The new-fangled religion handed out from the average modern pulpit has little attractions. The absence of people from church nowadays is not much of a conundrum. The chief reasons have been stated. Let a few of the Enid preachers follow these suggestions and note results in increased attendance."—Wave-Events.

HASKELL AND MENEFFEE LEADING FINANCIERS STATE ADMINISTRATION

REPORTED TO BE ORGANIZING A BIG CENTRAL STATE BANK
PROPOSITION FOR OKLAHOMA CITY.

Ex and Present Bank Commissioner Named in Deal—Columbia Bank and Trust Company Involved in Transaction.

According to rumor last night State Treasurer J. A. Menefee is to succeed W. L. Norton as president of the Columbia Bank and Trust company. It was further stated that he would resign his office as state treasurer to accept the presidency of the big financial institution. Mr. Menefee would make no statement in regard to the matter last night.

A long conference was held at the Lee hotel, at which were Governor
C. N. Haskell, who is known to have lately acquired stock in the Columbia Bank and Trust company; J. A.
Menefee and his partner, Boone Hite
of Anadarko; H. H. Smock, Bank Commissioner A. M. Young, of Guthrie; I. M. Putnam and W. T. Kemper, a leading bank and trust man of Kansas City, Mo., who is also said to be interested in the deal.

When asked about the matter Governor Haskell was not inclined to be communicative. He stated, however, that he had been in conference with a number of the leading state bankers
with a view to making Oklahoma City a reserve center for state banks, and hinted at a possibility of the Columbia Bank and Trust company being connected ultimately with the matter.
The possibility of Mr. Menefee's resignation, he said, was news to him.

Mr. Kemper was also non-committal
as to his connection with the deal.

W. L. Norton is also president of the Southwestern Mortgage company, owned by the same people as the Columbia Bank and Trust company.
It is believed he would prefer to retire from the banking business in order to give his entire time to the big mortgage company. The Southwestern Mortgage company recently leased for ninety-nine years the "Jim Weaver" corner on Main street and will erect a twelve story building
there.

HASKELL DELIBERATE

HE HAS THE NERVE TO CALL
SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLA-TURE IF PIPE LINE PROJECT
LOOKS FEASIBLE.

Names the Commissioners Who Will Investigate the Practicability of the Plan.

Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 27.—Three persons whose names are not made public have been appointed by Gov. C.
N. Haskell to investigate the oil situation with reference to the proposed state oil pipe line from the Oklahoma mid-continent field to the Gulf of Mexico, as well as the feasibility of the pipe line project itself. They are to make a written report upon which the governor will base his conclusions.

"I have to be shown that the scheme is feasible," said Gov. Haskell today. "It is a subject requiring the greatest consideration and study
so I am in no position to say what will or can be done until I hear from the persons who are investigating."

Newspapers have printed expressions from a number of clubs and mass meetings in the oil section indorsing the state pipe line idea, but the governor has received none of them in writing. It is doubtful if they will influence executive action
for the project unless the prospectus and financial balance sheets show the venture to be justified, and that the state will not meet with financial loss.

With members of the legislature
who have been in Guthrie during the last few days, there is a desire to proceed with caution and to require the most exacting showing.
All agree that seven-eighths of the people would have to be educated as to the necessities and expediency of the state spending $2,000,000 or more for a pipe line, to say nothing of what the legislature would require in the shape of knowledge. Doubt is expressed that one state could acquire right in another state. Failure to do so would require co-operation of adjoining states with substantial appropriations, and aside from having a market at their door
it is not believed that adjoining states would have much interest in the welfare of Oklahoma oil producers.

Unless the persons named by the governor make a favorable report, it is said, there will be no necessity of a commission visiting other states to learn what aid they will give.

HON. E. C. PATTON ELECTED CHAIRMAN CORPORATION COMMISSION

VICE W. L. CHAPMAN, RESIGNED, FORMER ADA BOY ELECTED TO IMPORTANT POSITION.

A special from Guthrie says: "Resignation of W. L. Chapman, the secretary of the State Corporation Commission, was accepted today. E. C.
Patton of Tishomingo, was elected secretary of the Corporation Commission."

Mr. Patton has been an officer of the Corporation Commission since statehood, being in charge of the department of private corporations. He makes a financial sacrifice to accept the secretaryship of the commission
since he was receiving in the position from which he resigned the legally authorized salary of $2200 a year, while the position of secretary
to the commission, which he has accepted pays but $2000.

The state has no more proficient
and honorable servant than E. C.
Patton. A scrutinizing review of his past private and public record attests
the deservedness of such complimentary reference.

He is a native of Mississippi and his people are among the best of that state. After graduating with honors from both the literary and law departments of the University of his state, he removed to Mt. Vernon, Tex., where he engaged in the practice of law. There he married, the cultured daughter of Col. C. K.
Davenport, at present a leading citizen of this county.

In 1901 Mr. Patton through the inducement of his friend, the writer,
came to Ada and formed a law partnership with Judge J. F. McKeel.
Later he was associated with Carl-ton Weaver in the publication of this paper. Following a year of pleasant and profitable association, during which period the old Texas friendship became endeared, he removed to Tishomingo and launched the Tish-omingo News, and a little later became the secretary and confidential advisor of Governor Johnson. During the constitutional convention, Mr.
Patton was its journal clerk, as was above suggested, because a valued employee of the Oklahoma commission with statehood.

An Englishman was once rallying a native of India upon his faculty in lying. The native at once replied:
"Why, sahib, we are all more or less liars in my country, and if one tells a story another immediately caps it.
There were two young men of my country who had a boasting match,
and one said, 'My father is so rich and has so many horses that his stable is of such extent as to take a horse 11 months to go from one end
stall to the other.' 'Shabash, brother,' replied the second boaster, 'that is very good. My father has a bamboc
so long that he can sweep the clouds away with it when they obscure the sun in harvest time. 'Hi hi!' exclaimed the first 'That is very wonderful; but, pray, brother, where does your father keep such a long bamboo?' 'Why, your stupid,' was the answer, 'in your father's stable, to be sure.'"

Alumnae Associations.

The Wesleyan alumnae is the oldest organization of the kind in the world, and recently Mrs. Emma Kunz was made the president of it. The alumnae organizations take most active interest in the colleges and schools
from which they have been graduated. At the Smith commencement
the alumnae march almost outranked
the ivy procession in importance.

Wedding Ring Etiquette.

"What is the etiquette of the wedding ring?" they asked the little grass widow. "Do you wear the rings given you by all your husbands, or that of the last one only? I see you don't wear any?"

"You wear the ring of the husband who pays you alimony," said she.
"That's why I am ringless."

APPRAISEMENTS TO BE MADE PUBLIC

Old System of Secret Appraisal of Indian Lands to Be Abolished.

Acting upon the advice of Dana H. Kelsey and the district Indian agents in Oklahoma, the department of the Interior has issued a new regulation abolishing the old system of secret appraisements upon Indian lands offered for sale, and in the future the appraisement will be public property. This was done in order to stimulate buyers and to get farmers from other states to bid on the land.

It has been the custom for the government agents to go out and appraise each tract of land, and the bidders had to pay as much as the appraisement or the land was not sold. But they were forced to bid blindly and even after the bids were opened they never knew what value the government had placed upon the land. Under this system it was difficult to get a farmer to bid, because he did not propose to tie up his money on a deal when he did not know but what the government had placed the appraisement above what he could pay for a farm. Land buyers who bought lots of land and bid on much more they did not buy, by a system of checking-up their bids and noting when the bids were so low the land was not sold, and a comparison of bids of other purchasers when the land did sell, got so they could approximate fairly well the idea of value the government appraisers placed on the land, but farmers who only wanted one farm and never bid on other lands, could not profit by such a system. Under the new regulation when the land is posted for sale the government appraisement will be posted right along with the notice, and any purchaser will know at once whether the appraisement is too high for him to reach. If it is he will not have to put up twenty per cent of the price bid and have it tied up for sixty days before the bid is finally accepted or rejected.

STATE LAND DEPARTMENT EXAMINED BY TAYLOR

GOV. HASKELL RECEIVES REPORT COVERING FROM STATEHOOD TO JUNE 30TH THIS YEAR.

Accounts Well Kept, School Money in County Bonds, Loaned on Farms and Deposited in Banks.

Guthrie, Ok., Sept. 17.—The first report of State Bank Examiner and Inspector Taylor upon affairs of the State School Land Department was made to Gov. Haskell today, covering the period extending from the day of statehood to June 30 of this year, nineteen and a half months. Details of the department's expenditures, none of which are provided for by legislative appropriation, were not given, but the report shows that a total of $205,920.60 was used for salaries and expenses, or an average of $10,560.03 per month. The report makes this comment as to the department's expenditures:

"We find no constitutional authority whereby the school Land Commissioners can use the school funds for purposes of paying the expenses of the department. But we do find specific provision in the constitution whereby public funds shall not be expended except in pursuance to an appropriation by law."

The method of collecting school land money and conducting the department without legislative appropriations, although inherited from the Territorial government, has been the subject of much comment. Correspondence between Attorney General West and Gov. Haskell some weeks ago indicated that the Attorney General proposed to institute suit in the supreme court to stop the practice, unless the governor would convene the legislature in special session and ask the legislature to pass an act limiting the number of employees the department could have and fix their compensation. The result of the correspondence has not been made public.

It is understood that the department made no detailed report upon expenditures, for the reason, as the report indicates, that the expenditures were not authorized by the legislative act, hence it follows, illegal save upon resolution or vote of the school land commissioners.

The report shows some of the investments of the $5,000,000 school fund, and what has accrued to it, to be in county bonds, to the amount of $1,094,500, loaned on farms $2,511,355 and deposited in banks $1,416,240.03.

The state has received through this department a total of $6,027,609.81, which includes over $250,000 from the Territory of Oklahoma, interest and principal of the $5,000,000 school fund received from the government, and interest and collections made since statehood. No farm loans have been made in Osage and Pushmataha counties. Among the larger deposits in bank are:

Farmers' National bank of Tulsa $50,000, Oklahoma Trust company of Muskogee $100,000, Oklahoma State bank of Guthrie $43,775, Anadarko State bank $20,000, Columbia Bank and Trust company of Oklahoma City $165,000.

All deposits save two are secured by bonds of various classes and state warrants. A deposit of $13,000 in the City National bank of El Reno is secured by a note of Lieutenant Governor Bellamy for $15,000, the report shows, payable to H. K. Kleker, in turn secured by real estate in the city of El Reno, and all assigned to the school land commission. A deposit of $5,000 in the Bank of Commerce of Sulphur is secured by notes of G. W. Weems for $1,000 in favor of F. E. Molack, secured by mortgage on real estate in the city of Sulphur and assigned to L. D. Marr, secretary of the board.

The report says the system of book-keeping is good and that the accounts are accurately kept.

NORMAL RECEPTION POSTPONED.

Will Not Occur Until Next Monday Account of Wednesday Evening Address of Judge Furman.

The reception to the state normal faculty and students proposed and planned at the First Baptist church this evening has been postponed until next Monday evening, on account of the request of President Briles, for the reason that such reception being held this evening would entail the attention of the school two successive evenings away from the regular study work. President Briles some time ago, invited Judge H. M. Furman, to come down home and deliver his famous lecture "The Immortality of the Soul From the Standpoint of a Lawyer," to the student body. A message came yesterday that Judge Furman would arrive in Ada Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock and would be pleased to appear before the students Wednesday evening.

The lecture will occur at the Methodist church tomorrow Wednesday evening.

COUNCIL HOLDS LONG SESSION

TRANSACT MORE OR LESS IMPORTANT BUSINESS AND HAVE BIG TALK FEST.

Paving Resolution Amended so as to Include Rock Asphalt Without Territorial Limit—Printing Contract Renewed With News.

The City Council met in regular session Monday night Sept. 27th, 1909, Mayor Little in the chair and Councilmen Sims, Chapman, Hope, Grigsby, West and Evans present. Hill and Crowder, absent.

Minutes of Aug. 31st and Sept. 6, 7, 9, 13th and 22nd were read and approved.

The city engineer's estimate for work done on waterworks extension for Sept. amounting to $675 was allowed upon a motion by Hope, seconded by Evans.

City physician, Dr. Ligon, made his report for September.

Upon a motion by Evans, seconded by Hope the Oliver Mitchell trouble was referred to the police enforcement committee.

The committee to investigate claim of S. R. Tolbert recommended that it be allowed. West moved and Hope seconded that committee report be adopted and warrant drawn for $17.20 the amount of claim. Carried.

The committee to make printing contract submitted the proposal of the Ada Daily and Weekly News, and there being no other proposals, recommended its acceptance, which was done upon a motion by Grigsby, seconded by West.

Matter of extending water pipe to Normal site was referred to water committee.

Complaint was made that the alleys in block 175 between 8th and 9th streets as far as Mrs. Castleberry's property and in block 133 between 17th and 18th streets were closed and the council asked to have same opened.

After some discussion a motion by Sims and seconded by Evans was carried, that the street commissioner be instructed to open said alleys.

The proposition of Messrs. Hunter and Blanks to sell to the city their portion of the alley in block 105 which reverted to them by reason of closing said alley, for $250 was accepted upon a motion by Sims, seconded by Evans. City Attorney was instructed to draw deed and mayor and city clerk authorized to sign warrant for same.

Hope moved and Evans seconded that contractors be notified to leave straight curb and gutter in lieu of alley intersection as contract provides in block 105.

The action by which paving resolution No. 8 was passed Sept. 22nd was reconsidered upon a motion by Chapman and seconded by Hope.

The resolution was reintroduced by Mr. Evans with the emergency clause attached, and read.

Grigsby moved that Section 1 be amended by striking out the words, "Pontotoc County" Evans seconded the motion which was carried.

Sections 1 and 2 were then adopted as read on a motion by Grigsby, seconded by Sims.

Grigsby moved and Sims seconded that emergency sections be adopted. Carried.

The resolution was then adopted as a whole upon a motion by Evans, seconded by Grigsby.

Adjourned.

Hear Judge Furman.

The public is invited to hear Judge Furman's address at Methodist church tomorrow evening. The subject will be the "Immortality of the Soul from the Standpoint of a Lawyer." The Judge delivered such lecture at the White Temple at Oklahoma City some time ago and was awarded a magnificent hearing and reception.

What Rebecca Did

When Chance Demanded a Generous Act

Rebecca thought she was beautiful. If she did not, why did she stroll the length of the long room to fill her oil can six times a day when the other girls oiled their machines three times at the most? Why did she wear the big bows of gay ribbon across the back of her head? Why were those earrings in her ears and gay jewels on her fat hands? She deemed them desirable adjuncts to her personal loveliness.

To Rosie Eisenstein, who was as neat as a pin, and to Lena Olson, who had not been brought up in the Ghetto, Rebecca was repulsive. But Rebecca loved them with a mad devotion only less real than her devotion for the man who sewed on the double-stitch machine.

Rebecca had come over from Russia three or four years before, as had most of the girls in the sweatshop. She had no education save for a little received as a child. She had worked on overalls since she was 14, three years before, and had advanced no further than to earn four dollars a week, while others who started with her were making as much as seven dollars a week and doing piece work.

What was Rebecca's grace? It seemed to be either her generous supply of affection for everyone—affection not desired by any—or her strong sense of humor. At lunch time her voluble conversation in Yiddish, which came thickly and continuously out of her mouth while chunks of salt fish went in, was greeted with frequent shouts of laughter. Though loved by no one, her society was not shunned, for her ever-ready fund of jokes amused everybody.

It happened one evening that Sadie, a little, frightened, dark-eyed, dark-skinned girl who had come shrinkingly to work at the shop two weeks before, had received her first payment of three dollars. The first week's work of each girl had to be gratis.

Sadie had tied up the precious dollar bills in a bit of coarse white cloth which she had found by her machine and had wrapped the whole around with thread. Then she tucked the package securely in her waist. She put on her hat and coat at closing time, quietly and silently, for Sadie—so shy and frightened was she—knew no one even after two weeks in the shop.

She put her hand for the tenth time inside her waist to feel the little white bundle. Then a look of fright convulsed her features. It was gone—her money!

Her tongue then was loosened. A volume of spattering Yiddish, English and Russian, hysterically bursting forth, made every girl anxious to do what she could to relieve Sadie's distress.

Going down on their knees on the dirty floor, they looked under papers and rags for the little white bundle tied around with thread. They could not find it anywhere.

"You would to steal it!" hissed Sadie, looking accusingly from one to another, at Rebecca, Lena, Rosie and last at Fannie.

They all denied the charge emphatically in Yiddish, English and Russian.

"It's a lie!" said Fannie, incensed that her honesty should be doubted by a strange girl in the sweatshop. "Ain't shame! Comes no robbers by he-e." But the strange little girl heard not. A small tragic figure she was as her dark eyes momentarily grew bigger and more wild.

"He will to have a fierce mad on me," she moaned. "I can't to go on my house. He may be to hit me!" Her voice broke piteously. Sinking in a little forlorn heap on the floor, she trembled and choked and sobbed. Rosie, Lena, Fannie and Rebecca stood silent. Sadie shuddered violently and wept on.

"You could to have this, the whiles you are scart to go on your house." It was Rebecca's big, warm voice that spoke. It was Rebecca who impulsively tucked three one-dollar bills into the coarse, dirty hand of Sadie. Sadie clutched the money eagerly and went out silently and hurriedly, as if in fear that it would be taken from her.

It means much in the sweatshop to give away three dollars. Though it happened that Sadie that evening ripped herself open and found in one of the crevices of her winter packing the white bundle tied with a thread, Rebecca could not have known, any more than did Rosie or Lena or Fannie, that the money was safe.

Incongruous it seemed that Rebecca, who had not a feature indicating the nobler sentiments, whose very presence was repulsive, should have been the one to do the big and generous thing.

A book worm is not necessarily a bore. When a woman is hungry she "feels faint."

BEAUTY AND FORTUNE FLED.

Three Women to Whom Life Has Been More Than Ordinarily Cold and Cruel.

Once they had all the honors which beauty and fortune could attain. Today they are cruelly disenchanted. One is the Russian Countess Pavlovna Lavetsky. She was received at the court of St. Petersburg. Her husband had castles, hundreds of serfs, millions of rubles. She had more jewels than the wife of a maharajah. But the count, an ardent soul, joined hands with the revolutionists. Implicated in the Riga affair he was shot. His possessions were confiscated.

The countess fled. She found a refuge in Geneva. Soon the little money she had brought with her was gone. She sold her jewels and found herself empty-handed. Then, courageously, she accepted a humble position in a cafe. She is there to-day waiting upon the patrons.

Another is the countess of Beaulieu, who a few years ago at Rome inspired Prince Victor with love. Were they married? She says so, the prince denies it. Their child had for its godmother Queen Marguerite, who gave it her name. The prince went to Brussels to forget his Roman adventures. The countess is at Milan, making hats and doing needlework.

The third is the baroness of Grunstadt, whose authentic titles go back to the middle age. She is a dressmaker in a Parisian workshop. Poor women! Their romance is more cruel than those of the novelists.—Le Cri de Paris.

"PIPE OF PEACE" RESTORED.

Graduates of Colby College Are This Year Enabled to Continue Old and Honored Practice.

When the class of 1862 left Colby they introduced a custom which lasted until 1903, with all the succeeding classes, says the Lewistown Journal. This custom was that of smoking on commencement day a pipe, which was kept at the college for this purpose, and on this eventful day in the lives of the graduates they all took a smoke from the pipe, whether they had ever smoked before or not. The so-called "Pipe of Peace" was an immense pipe with a stem two feet long and a bowl with a human face engraved upon it in the front, while around the sides were found many other profiles. This wonderful pipe remained at the college for forty-odd years and was smoked by every man who graduated during that time, but in 1903 it mysteriously disappeared, and was not heard from until the past week, when it was returned to the college. With the disappearance of the pipe the custom disappeared, and thus the classes since 1903 have not had the privilege of smoking a "pipe of peace." Now, however, that the pipe is safely back at the college, and is being watched over by Dr. Hall at the library, it is very probable that the old custom will again be taken up and that the class of 1909 will on commencement day of this year be seen puffing away at this valuable old relic.

A Woman Onion Grower.

"You may have heard how the Rio Grande country has put the Bermuda onion growers out of business," said Capt. George H. Darter of Laredo, Tex. "Our most successful grower, by the way, is a lady, Mrs. E. C. Dodd, who lives in my town. She cultivated 135 acres this season and made a net profit on her onion crop of a little over $50,000. To make land bring a gain of $400 an acre is something few men have the ability to do, and yet this lady does not seem to regard her feat as entitling her to any great praise.

"Mrs. Dodd looks after every detail of her farm in person. Raising onions is no child's play; it involves hard work and great expense in our section, where irrigation is necessary. It is the intention of Mrs. Dodd to plant on a still bigger scale as she gradually brings more of her land under irrigation."—Baltimore American.

The Little Blind Bats.

Beneath the ruin there still existed a dungeon vault, gloomy and granite groined, yet, save for broken wall and stairway, perfect as when poor wretches moldered there at the mercy of their feudal masters. Now not so much as one specter of a vanished sufferer haunted the place; only the bats passed their sleeping hours among the arches of the roof and hung, from five-clawed hands, with sinister, wrapped wings—like little dusky cherubins that worship with veiled faces at some mystery-seat of evil.—Eden Philpotts, "Sons of the Morning."

Condemns Motor-Speeding.

Bishop Samuel Fallows of the Reformed Episcopal church, preaching in St. Paul's church, Chicago, recently on "The Race for Life," took occasion to warn his congregation against motor speeding. "Let your moderation be known to all men," should be inscribed on every car," said the bishop. "The commercial, military and other uses of the automobile are endless. We therefore hail its advent with joy, not untempered, however, with wholesome fear."

Foresight of a Haymaker.
